SPONSORS

WELCOME

Thank you for joining us for the Nurse-Led Care Conference 2018: Transforming Practice, Defining Value. We are excited to continue our annual tradition of gathering nurse advocates across the country to share their insight, expertise, and passion for healthier communities through nurse-led models of care.

The National Nurse-Led Care Consortium works to strengthen community health by promoting nurse-led care and serves as an incubator for innovative, replicable, public health programs. Our mission is to advance nurse-led health care through policy, consultation, and programs to reduce health disparities and meet people's primary care and wellness needs. It is the work that you do every day – as clinicians, researchers, and leaders – that makes our mission a reality.

This conference holds special significance for us as an organization as we conclude a year-long strategic planning process that prepares us to better support you, your organizations, and the communities you serve. We continue our commitment to driving evidence-informed practices built upon the principles of nursing. I hope this conference provides an opportunity to connect with colleagues who share your commitment to reimagining value in our rapidly evolving health care environment. Thank you again for joining us, and we hope to see you again in Nashville, Tennessee for the Nurse-Led Care Conference 2019.

Sarah Hexem Hubbard

Sarah Hexem Hubbard, Esq.
Executive Director

FEATURED

Margaret M. Flinter is the Senior VP and Clinical Director of the Community Health Center, Inc., a statewide federally qualified health center serving 150,000 patients from its primary care centers across Connecticut. Dr. Flinter founded the Weitzman Institute, which focuses on research, innovation, and quality improvement. Dr. Flinter also co-hosts “Conversations on Health Care” a weekly radio show.

Lauran Hardin is the Senior Director of Cross Continuum Transformation for the National Center for Complex Health and Social Needs and the Camden Coalition. Her innovative model of care earned “Edge Runner” recognition from the American Academy of Nursing in June of 2015. Hardin has a Master’s degree in Nursing from the University of Detroit Mercy, with certifications in Pain Management and Hospice.

Lorina Marshall-Blake is the President of the Independence Blue Cross Foundation, an associate minister, and is affiliated with more than 30 professional and civic organizations. In 2016, Rev. Dr. Marshall-Blake was inducted into the American Academy of Nursing as an honorary fellow and serves on the National Advisory Council on Nursing Education and Practice in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Brie Reimann is the Director for the National Council’s Center for Integrated Health Solutions. Reimann provides leadership, content expertise, and project management to inform the training and technical assistance provided to community-based behavioral and primary care organizations. Previously, she directed the SBIRT Colorado initiative and worked with the University of Colorado to develop curriculum for nursing students and preceptors.

SPEAKERS

Joyce Knestrick is the President of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners. Dr. Knestrick practices as a family nurse practitioner at Wheeling Health Right in Wheeling, West Virginia. Dr. Knestrick earned a PhD at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Dr. Knestrick has 25 years of experience as a family nurse practitioner working in clinics that serve low income and underserved populations both in urban and rural Appalachian areas.

SAVE THE DATE

FALL 2019

NURSE-LED CARE CONFERENCE

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

BECOME A MEMBER

The National Nurse-Led Care Consortium is a member-supported organization. Did you enjoy our 2018 conference? Do you like the work we're doing? We can use your support. Students, nurses (and non-nurses), clinical practices, and clinical networks can become supporting members of the National Nurse-Led Care Consortium. Our mission is to advocate for nurses and serve as an incubator for innovative, replicable, community-based health programs.

Our programming includes local direct services in the Philadelphia region like the Nurse-Family Partnership, and we provide training technical assistance services to health care leaders across the U.S. We host webinars, learning collaboratives, and in-person trainings to make health centers sustainable and improve the quality of care.

Most importantly for you: Supporting members get a discount for next year's conference in Nashville, Tennessee (Fall 2019).
